Nothing in theatre is as magical as sharkstooth scrim, with it's "now you see it, now you don't" properties.

Nothing in theatre is as magical as sharkstooth scrim, with it's "now you see it, now you don't" properties. Properly lit, sharkstooth scrim moves from being completely opaque to completely transparent, hiding and revealing as needed. Used correctly, sharkstooth scrim can elicit an audience gasp every time!
